Subject: Informing the Client About Project Delay

Good morning respected client and everyone present here.

Today, I would like to inform you about an important update regarding our project.

First of all, thank you for your support and cooperation throughout the project. We truly value our professional relationship and your trust in us.

I would like to inform you that there has been a small delay in the project. This delay happened because of some unexpected technical issues and a few approvals that took more time than planned. These problems were not expected at the beginning.

I want to assure you that our team is working sincerely to resolve these issues. We are putting in our best efforts to complete the project without affecting the quality. Quality is very important to us, and we do not want to compromise on it.

We have reviewed the situation and updated our work plan. With this new plan, we expect to complete the project by next week.

We understand that this delay may cause inconvenience, and for that, we sincerely apologize. We kindly request your patience and understanding.

Please be assured that we are fully committed to completing the project successfully and meeting your expectations.

Thank you for your time and support.

Thank you.
